Power Up Democracy!

Unleash your potential as a POLL WORKER this election.

Frank LaRose
Ohio Secretary of State

What's the buzz?

As a poll worker, you'll be on the front lines of democracy, ensuring every vote counts.

Your mission? To help members of your community vote and make a real difference on Election Day!

Ready to join the team?

Here's what you need to know:

- ▶ ELIGIBILITY: Be at least 17 years old by the November General Election. If you are currently under 18, you will need a signed parental consent form.
- ▶ TRAINING: Attend a comprehensive training to become an Election Day pro. Training sessions are sponsored by your county board of elections and usually last around 2.5 hours.
- ▶ HEROIC SERVICE: Poll workers are asked to show up before voting starts (6:30 a.m.) and after polls close (7:30 p.m.) on Election Day. Your county board of elections will provide you with specific Election Day work hours.

Get your school or organization involved by:

1. SET THE BAR HIGH!
Challenge your class, team, club, or even friend group to see who can rally the most poll workers!
2. GO VIRAL!
Create social media posts on your social and encourage your friends and even the school accounts to share them.
3. ANNOUNCING...
Take over the mic during school announcements, sporting event, or even your summer job to help your community vote!
4. EXTRA, EXTRA, READ ALL ABOUT IT!
Call your local newspaper or TV station to share your story on how you and your friends are participating in democracy!
5. EVEN MORE EXTRA...
Ask your government teacher or school admin for extra credit, then put "Precinct Election Official" on your college applications to stand out.
6. DOWNLOAD A POSTER FROM VOTEOHIO.GOV
